UNRAVELLING

I am falling
All the way through the sky
Choking on the air
As everything is fading
Not making sense
As it all unravels in front of me

I am falling
Spiralling down
Can we ever be free
Of infinity
Or will it just be
Forever unravelling

I am far
Into an extension of reality
Take me away
Back through to the other side with you

I am falling
Spiralling down
Can we ever be free
Of infinity
Or will it just be
Forever unravelling
Forever unravelling
Forever unravelling

WAITING

Days are endless
Searching for you
Reaching same conclusions
The you I want is missing
Time just goes
On and on
In spite of my best efforts
To make it wait for you to grow

What is there left to see
What is there left to be
When I've loved so much
There's no place I could be
I'm so lost

Searching wanting
Never finding
Where has your soul gone
Maybe its time to say goodbye
Time just goes
On and on and on
In spite of my best efforts
To make it wait for you to grow

What is there left to see
When I've loved so much
I'm so lost

LONG FORGOTTEN

The moments in life that remain un-captured
Free to be blown and tumbled in the wind
Softly fading
They slowly disappear
To be a memory
Seared into only one mind

But the meaning is long forgotten
But the meaning is long forgotten

These moments they become more precious
As time winds itself into frenzied chaos
Every minute detail announced to the world
As if to say 'this is the meaning of me'

But the meaning is long forgotten
But the meaning is long forgotten
But the meaning is long forgotten
But the meaning is long forgotten

THE SEA

Rain falls heavy over me
Waking me, calling me, taunting me
Rain falls heavy over me
I stand, silently
Staring out to sea

Rains falls heavy over me
Waking me, calling me, taunting me

The waves calling at me
To stop biding my time
It'll keep passing you by
As the sea rolls on

Rain falls heavy over me
Waking me, calling me, taunting me
Standing staring out to sea
Everything begins unravelling

The waves calling at me
To stop biding my time
It'll keep passing you by
As the sea rolls on

The waves calling at me
To stop biding my time
It'll keep passing you by
As the sea rolls on

This time will fade away in the end
This time will fade away in the end
This time will fade away in the end

THIS MESS WE'RE IN

You whispered in my ear
You wanted to know what I was thinking
I was far away
In my dream place

I whispered in your ear
I wanted to share what I was thinking
Let's all be
Part of the change

If everyone did one thing to save her
We could get out of this mess we're in
If everyone did one thing to save her

We're in such a mess
We're in such a mess

If everyone did one thing to save her
We could get out of this mess we're in
If everyone did one thing to save her
We could get out of this mess we're in

If everyone did one thing to save her
We could get out of this mess we're in
If everyone did one thing to save her

SUBDUED

The way that you just look down at me
The expectation flickers through your eyes
You whisper quiet so no one else can hear but I'm just playing this song inside my head

You think that you have got a hold on me
But you are just your own worst enemy
I'm leaving my now, I've been subdued but it's my time
I won't look back to say goodbye

I've been subdued
But it's my time now
I've been subdued
But it's my time now

ALL MY LIFE

A smiling man showed me a way
He said forget your sorrows and live today
Well I looked up and all I saw
Was a man that I have since adored

All my life I've been waiting for a
Moment like this that would bring me home
Someone that would bring a little
Happiness into my fallen world

All my life I'd been living with the devil in my soul
And I had nothing left to give

You leaned in close and said I see your demons
But it's time to let them go
Forget your trouble, forget your sorrow
And live today

All my life I've been waiting for a

All my life I'd been living with the devil in my soul

All my life I'd been living with the devil in my soul

WANDERER

You were a wanderer
You took my hand
And said wander with me
I took your hand in mine
We went walking through the night

I'd wander through the earth
For eternity
If I'd find you wandering too
I'd wander through the earth
For eternity

For hours we lay watching stars
In an ancient landscape
Far from home
As the sun crept through the trees
You whispered bye
And then you disappeared

I'd wander through the earth
For eternity
If I'd find you wandering too
I'd wander through the earth
For eternity

I'd wander through the earth
For eternity
If I'd find you wandering too
I'd wander through the earth
For eternity

SLEEP TO DREAM

I wandered into
This sort of daydream
There were words
And they did speak to me

Spoke straight to my heart
Reminding me
We're not here for long
Don't forget

I will say this only once
You need time to dream
Feel the freedom take you in
You don't need to sleep to dream

We live in a time
Acting like there'll be no ending
That's not really living at all

Let time drift away
Sit back, reflect
Silence might just open up
Your eyes

I will say this only once
You don't need to sleep to dream

I will say this only once
You need time to dream

SPACES

Human emotion
Thought and spaces
Stay out of contamination zone
Where endless thoughts of
Those you don't want to think about
Are all exist

Human emotion

Space is where I go
To reflect on this time
Endlessness is calm

Space is where I go
Endlessness is calm
